PROGRAM: Effective Underwater Communication

Program

“What do you mean I’m a Tuna?”

We will be learning the art of  “Effective Underwater Communication”. Let’s compare notes and see what clever signs you use to communicate with your BUDDY!

WEB-SITE

Todd has made some additional updates to our web site. Take a minute and check it out. We will welcome your feedback at the March meeting.

NEW LOCATION

Our March meeting will be at another new location for us to try out. We will be meeting at Emerson Biggins Sports Bar & Grill on the West side of town. Our meeting will take place in the “Patio Room” DO NOT WORRY... the Patio Room is located INSIDE.

It’s that time of year again. Annual membership dues are a mere $10 per person. Dues may be paid at the meeting, or by contacting Cheryl Fallis.

Hints Tips & Jokes

One day, a diver was enjoying the aquatic world 20 feet below sea level. He noticed a guy at the same depth he was, with no scuba gear on whatsoever.

The diver went below another 10 feet, but the guy joined him a minute later. The diver went below 15 more feet, a minute later, the same guy joined him.

This confused the diver, so he took out a waterproof chalkboard, and wrote, "How the heck are you able to stay under this deep without equipment?"

The guy took the board and chalk, erased what the diver had written, and wrote, "I'm drowning, you moron!"

WSU Alumni Breakfast

Speaker: Paul Humann

March 22, 2008, 7:30 am

Marcus Welcome Center – located near the northeast entrance to the WSU Campus at 21st Street and Mike Oatman Drive.

Always active in water sports, Paul Humann left a successful law practice in 1972 to become captain/owner of the M/B Cayman Diver, the Caribbean's first live aboard dive cruiser. Beginning in the 1960s, he became increasingly enamored of marine life, diving and, especially, underwater photography. In 1982, he published his first identification book, Reef Creatures – Marine Invertebrates. To date, he has photographed and authored 17 books, and his photos have been seen in National Geographic, Skin Diver Magazine, Audobon and many other publications.

The breakfast begins at 7:30 am and includes a question-and-answer session in addition to the featured alumni speaker's comments.

If you are interested in attending the breakfast or would like additional information, please contact Mandy Fleming at
